THE WHITE HOUSE

August 4, 1982

Dear Mr. Casey: Ball

I am pleased to confirm that the Central Intelligence Agency's nominee, [redacted] has been selected for the President's Executive Exchange Program for the year 1982 - 1983. [redacted] has elected to spend her Exchange year at [redacted]

As you know, sponsors of Exchange Executives have agreed to cover a portion of the cost of the educational program which is concurrent with the exchange experience. Our invoice for $3,000, for [redacted] will be forwarded to you on or about October 1. In this vein, you are aware, I am sure, of the obligation that Exchange Executives return to the Federal Government for at least a period equal to that of the Exchange assignment. Should the Exchange Executive fail to serve the required time, she is liable to the United States Government for all expenses (except salary) of the assignment. We urge you to bring this fact to the attention of your nominee and ask that she sign a statement acknowledging awareness of this requirement. (A suggested statement is enclosed.)

Thank you for your support of the President's Executive Exchange Program. We value it highly and look forward to working with you and [redacted] to make this a truly memorable and worthwhile experience.

Sincerely,

June G. Walker
